

DELAY IS GRANTED MRS. LAURA CRAMER

Defendant In Hurd Case
Asks Time to Prepare
Answer to Charge.

F. J. HURD TOO WEAK TO APPEAR IN COURT

Woman Is Accused of Getting $40,000 Bt Means of "Messages" From Hurd's Dead Wife.

In order that Mrs. Laura R. Cramer may have additional time to file her answer to the allegations that she has obtained more than $40,000 from the octogenarian, Fenton J. Hurd, through the means of "spirit messages," the preliminary hearing on the suit was postponed in Justice Stafford's court this morning.

The postponement was by agreement of counsel, who will decide tomorrow what day next week the issue is to have its first airing in the courts. Neither Mrs. Cramer, the alleged "medium," nor Dr. Lee M. Hurd, of New York city, grandson of the aged man and conservator of the estate, now that Fenton J. Hurd has been declared "incapable," were present this morning. Dr. Hurd will not come to Washington until a definite date is named for the trial.

Trust Company Restrained.

The hearing set for today was upon the temporary restraining order to prohibit a local loan and trust company from disbursing any of the funds belonging to Mrs. Cramer thought to be in that institution. Inasmuch as the restraining order is still in effect, attorneys for Mr. Hurd had no objection this morning to extending the time for Mrs. Cramer's answer.

Attorney A. Birney, representing Mrs. Cramer, indicated that he would be prepared to file a brief in answer to charges made against his client, within a few days.

The interests of Dr. Hurd were cared for today by attorneys Wallace Donahoe, McLean and Richard A. Ford. H. Gordon Pierce, the New York attorney associated in the unusual case, will not come to Washington until the lines are squarely drawn for a showdown between the contentions of the aged man that Mrs. Cramer posed as the possessor of spirit messages from his deceased wife and the denial of Mrs. Cramer of her former boarder's claim.

Hurd May Not Appear.

It is not known whether it will be possible for the octogenarian complainant himself to be present at the trial, as he is in feeble condition. Mr. Hurd was removed to Greenwich, Conn., early this year, his relatives at that time believing death imminent. Prior to this he had lived for many years at the De Soto apartments, occupying rooms in Mrs. Cramer's apartment. It is here that he alleges the "spirit messages" were received which resulted in his paying over large sums of money to the "medium."

In event Mr. Hurd is unable to appear personally his allegations will be made in the shape of affidavits.

Asks For Conservator.

Dr. Hurd applied in March last to the Greenwich (Conn.) probate court for the appointment of a conservator of his grandfather's estate, alleging that "mental derangement, physical infirmities, and advanced age" had Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Commuters' Service on Saturdays, effective Saturday, July 2d, and continuing on Saturdays, during July, August and September. Train 157 will leave Washington for Baltimore and intermediate points at 12:15 p. m. instead of 12:35 p. m.—Adv.

Popular Excursion, Baltimore and Ohio R. R., July 2d, leave Union Station 8:15 a. m. $1.00 to Harpers Ferry and Martinsburg, $1.25 to Berkeley Springs, and $2.00 to Cumberland and return, by special train, returning same day. Splendid opportunity for a delightful outing cheap.—Adv.

rendered Fenton J. Hurd incapable of managing his own affairs.

A few days later Dr. Hurd was given power of attorney to administer the estate.

In his testimony, Dr. Hurd said: "During the last few years my grandfather has paid large sums of money, without recompense, to persons not entitled to such moneys. I am personally in accord with him, and this application is with his knowledge and consent. Since the filing of the papers he has been with me constantly, and has asked that I be appointed as conservator."

"His property at the present is in the form of mortgages, to the amount of about $40,000. That sum represents about half of the fortune before he was subjected to undue influences."

Dr. Edward O. Parker also testified at the Greenwich hearing that he believed Fenton J. Hurd to be incapable, both physically and mentally.

When Deputy Sheriff Ritch went to serve the papers in the conservator proceedings he found the aged man in bed at the home of his grandson. So impressed was he by the octogenarian's enfeebled condition and the ravages of time that he declares he thought it useless to appoint a conservator for "a man who would be in his grave."

Old Man Seemed Rational.

"The old man seemed rational, however," said Mr. Ritch, "and when I gave him the papers he asked if they were in regard to his Washington affairs. I told him they were in regard to appointing a conservator for him, and he replied that he would look them over some day."

Neither Dr. Hurd nor the aged Fenton J. Hurd is well known in Greenwich. This young physician has his office in New York and belongs to the army of command who spend the days in New York and the evenings at home. Consequently Dr. Hurd is unknown to the vast majority of Greenwich residents.

Since the arrival of Fenton J. Hurd in Greenwich last March he has been a constant source of trouble to the family. He exhibited a tendency to wander about the streets, and the police have orders to be on the lookout for the aged man and to return him to the home of his grandson if found. Dr. Hurd has feared that his grandfathers fall into the hands of designing persons who are aware of the old man's beliefs in spiritualism or that he might meet with some physical disaster in his enfeebled condition.

"IT DEPENDS," SAYS BRYAN.

MONTREAL, July 1.—A denial or affirmation on the part of William J. Bryan that he would again be Democratic candidate for President could not be drawn from the three-time candidate upon his arrival here from Bristol, England. Asked outright if he would again run he said: "I never discuss politics outside of my own country, and any way how can I tell just now whether I'll run or not. Much depends on conditions."

SHORTAGE OF MONEY HAMPER ENGINEERS

Lack of Per Diem Funds
Seriously Affects Inspection of Work.

That the work of the Engineer Department will be seriously hampered during the fiscal year beginning today by the provision in the District appropriation bill which limits the expenditure for per diem service to $25.00 is the report submitted to the Commissioners today by the Assistant Engineer Commissioners of the District.

In response to the request of Commissioner Judson that they recommend an allotment of this sum so as to include all the per diem service contemplated during the year, the Assistant Engineer Commissioners recommend that $38,000 be given the surface division, $15,000 the sewer division, and $19,000 to the office of the municipal architect.

Inspector's Hampered.

"In going over this question," says the report, "it is found that the estimates made by the heads of the various departments exceeded the total allotment by over $14,000, and it has been necessary to cut that much from the various allotments."

"The board feels that $25.00 is not sufficient to carry the necessary per diem employees throughout the coming year without seriously affecting the inspection of the work."
